

Charity Governance Code

It is the Code's starting point that all trustees:

- are committed to their charity's cause and have joined its board because they want to help the charity deliver its purposes most effectively for public benefit
- recognise that meeting their charity's stated public benefit is an ongoing requirement
- understand their roles and legal responsibilities, and, in particular, have read and understand:
 - the Charity Commission's guidance The Essential Trustee (CC3)
 - their charity's governing document
 - are committed to good governance and want to contribute to their charity's continued improvement.
